

Topic

As human beings, we go through a lot of experiences throughout our life. Talk about a historical event you felt you were experiencing. One option could be the current situation in our country – Lebanon. Are you a part of the revolution? Where are you revolutionizing? What are doing there? How do you feel about it?

- Narrate this special experience that you went through.
- Don't forget your introduction, body paragraph and conclusion.
- Use the outline below to organize your ideas.

Outline

I. Introduction

A. Background information

B. Thesis statement

II. Body Paragraph

A. Topic sentence: _____

1. Supporting Detail 1: _____

a. Example: _____

b. Example: _____

2. Supporting Detail 2: _____

a. Example: _____

b. Example: _____

3. Supporting Detail 3: _____

a. Example: _____

b. Example: _____

III. Conclusion

- Follow the checklist given below to guide you through your writing. Put a check sign (✓) next to each step you think has been completed in your writing.

	Rubrics	✓
1	The story has a strong lead using (dialogue, small details, action, inner thinking...).
2	The beginning reveals the basic situations and introduces the characters and setting.
3	The middle/rising action has an exciting conflict or problem.
4	In the end, the conflicts are resolved.
5	The internal story has been woven throughout the beginning, middle and end.
6	The story makes sense to the reader.
7	You incorporated dialogue between the characters in the story.
8	Tenses are used correctly.
9	Transition words are used correctly.
10	Sentences are all "complete sentences" and are not run-ons.
11	All sentences are written using proper grammar.
12	The writing is organized into paragraphs.	